I hope you have been well... I took another look at the posts on this site recently -- after having read about four books on the "Holy Grail". While this all seems muddled, it does seem that the stuffs in the book relate to a factual belief as to what and where the "Holy Grail" is. For example -- the reference to Malta is probably the relationship of De Molay and his returning by order of the Pope from Malta. Phi squared is Templar related as well -- Bethlehem Angle 26* 18". Blah, all muddled bits, but it does seem the author is pushing towards a Masonic view of the whole "Holy Grail" thing. If you have any other interesting tidbits from the puzzle that don't seem to fit, I would love to hear them... And no, I still don't have the puzzle -- so don't scream at me.
